Message from the President

The purpose of North Coast Section Championship Series competition is to provide an opportunity for outstanding teams and individuals to test themselves against other outstanding qualifiers in their respective sports in this season of competition.

Interscholastic competition should be challenging and fun and should also be a significant part of a sound educational program. Everyone involved in sports programs has a duty to assure that their programs impart important life skills and promote the development of good character.

You can be part of a message sent through our community that interscholastic athletics potentially have lifetime learning experience impact. Unlike sports events we see on television at the professional level where entertainment is the mission and education is not a primary objective, our goal is to have a positive life long effect. This message must be communicated if we are to continue to have success in this area.

Immerse yourself in the enthusiasm and excitement of the various NCS Championships, but remember the philosophy upon which it is based. The highest potential of sports is achieved when all involved consciously teach, enforce, advocate and model the values of trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, citizenship and good sportsmanship. With them, the spirit of competition thrives, fueled by honest rivalry, courteous relations and good sportsmanship.

2014 Fall Honor Coaches

By Steve Dulas

Jen Cincotta, Dougherty Valley High School, Girls' Volleyball Honor Coach

This isn't the first time Jen Cincotta has seen her volleyball team go from simply being an idea to being a playoff team. But that doesn't make it any less special for Cincotta, who helped establish the volleyball program at Dougherty Valley in 2009. It took just four years for the program to advance to the point where DV qualified, and won its first North Coast Section playoff victory. "It was a huge victory for the program, as it showed the tremendous growth we've achieved. In the first season the team had only two wins and in a short amount of time we have become a competitive team," Cincotta said. She had previously launched the volleyball and basketball programs at Guajome Park Charter in Vista, near San Diego, then three years later was at Medford (Massachusetts) High, coaching volleyball and track. She returned to California in 2009 with a chance to mold a new program. "As a coach my goal is to develop the complete athlete," she said. "I want my players to form a competitive and successful team on the court, and at the same time develop skills that will make them successful off the court." Even though the Dougherty Valley program is only five years old, it has already produced two college players, Kelly Bielaski at UC Santa Barbara and Kacy Gurewitz at Ohio Wesleyan.

Steve Gillette, Redwood Christian High School, Cross Country Honor Coach

Steve Gillette holds the distinction of being one of the few coaches to have guided the same school to prominence in two different Sections. He coached the Redwood Christian girls cross country team to a Central Coast Section championship and a league title, and the boys team to a couple of second-place CCS finishes before the school joined the NCS after the 2007-08 school year. The boys' team, which had twice finished second in CCS Division V, introduced itself to the NCS with a couple of top-10 finishes. While the performance of his teams has been a high point of his career, perhaps the lowest came in 2006 when he spoke at the memorial service for Jack Welch, a two-time state place winner who died two years after suffering catastrophic injuries in a car crash with his family in Nevada. Gillette, the Eagles' cross country and track coach from 1984-2012, has coached four different runners to top-10 finishes in the CIF State championships. Gillette, who teaches history, serves the athletic program in other ways as well – he has been the Site Director for the BCL-East league meet since 2005, the Redwood Christian Invitational Meet Director each fall and hosts two track and field invitationals in the spring. With all that he even drives the bus for RCS road games.

Frank Haswell, San Ramon Valley High School, Girls' Tennis Honor Coach

If one player exemplified Frank Haswell's coaching philosophy at San Ramon Valley, it was a promising young tennis player who, because of physical illness, lost her chance at being a competitive player. Yet that former player is excelling in college as a student, a leader and a role model. That, Haswell says, is what coaching is all about. "I have strived to bring out the best in each player, both in the sport but most importantly in their lives," he said. "I want each to have an appreciation of the true meaning of sportsmanship and a better grasp of what part it will play in their lives after high school. I want them to both win and accept defeat as champions." His players have been a success on the court, as well. His girls' team finished second in the North Coast Section tournament in 2007 and have been NCS qualifiers every year during Haswell's 11 seasons at San Ramon Valley. "I have taken much enjoyment in the growth of all of our students as individuals," he said. "I have taken a personal interest in the individuals that have succeeded in their college and post-college careers." Haswell has served the NCS as site director for boys' and girls' championship tournaments, and is a member of the NCS Tennis Management Committee. He has also been on the USTA Northern California Board of Directors since 2011, giving him another opportunity to help aspiring players succeed.

Ron Petroni, Casa Grande High School, Football Honor Coach

When Ron Petroni became head football coach at Casa Grande in 1979, it was the start of an ongoing project: To build a winning, competitive program. Even though it took several years to pay off, there was the look of joy on the players' faces in 2001 when the Gauchos won the school's first-ever Sonoma County League championship. "We established a tradition of successful student-athletes and teams," Petroni said. The Gauchos reeled off six straight league titles from 2003-08, and 2011-13. Last season was a high water mark as the Gauchos won a school-record 13 games to reach the Division II championship game before falling to Miramonte. Since the first league title in 2001, Casa Grande has won no less than seven games in a season. "My philosophy is to be positive and supportive to all of our student-athletes while teaching the incredible sport of football," Petroni said. The long-time coach was also Casa Grande's former athletic director, has been a leader in the school's intramural athletic program, and is chair of the science and physical education departments. Petroni also coached baseball at Casa Grande from 1979-85, leading the Gauchos to a couple of championships during that span.

Tim Scott, Acalanes High School, Girls' Golf Honor Coach

Even though Tim Scott has had some tremendously successful teams during his tenure as golf coach at Acalanes, the heart of his coaching comes from his love of the game. Each year he gives out the William W. Scott Award, named after his father, not necessarily to the best golfer but "to the golfer or golfers who love the game of golf the way my father did," Scott said. Tim Scott has been the boys' golf coach at Acalanes for 28 years, including coaching the girls' team the last 16 seasons. His best team was in 2003, when the Dons qualified for the Girls State Golf Tournament in Southern California. One of his proudest moments as a coach came last year when Elizabeth Schultz, then a junior, qualified for and played in the Women's USGA Open; Schultz is now playing at San Jose State. "My personal philosophy of coaching is to tell the athlete that golf is a game you can play the rest of your life, and that it doesn't matter what level you achieve to enjoy it," he said. Scott has served as co-director of league tournaments for years. He added another labor of love in 2005 when he and longtime friend Lee Silverstein founded the Trans Bay High School Tournament at Rossmoor Golf Course. The tournament, which draws teams from throughout Northern California, is a benefit for Junior Golf programs.

NCS MISSION STATEMENT

The North Coast Section fosters, defines and preserves the role of athletics in secondary education. It is an organization committed to providing a wholesome environment in which educational athletics will thrive. It is the Section's purpose to serve student-athletes and spectators, and to encourage students to reach their potential within the context of available resources, organizational limits and equity of competition.

North Coast Section Major Sponsors & Funding

The North Coast Section, a non-profit service organization composed of member public and private schools, assists in the administration of boys and girls athletics in secondary schools. The Section is committed to providing a wholesome environment in which athletics for students may thrive.

The North Coast Section does not receive any direct tax funding, nor does it receive any direct benefit from the California State Lottery. The promotion of the North Coast Section and its defined program requires commitment and support from our corporate community.

The North Coast Section would like to take this opportunity to thank the following corporate citizens who support the North Coast Section through major sponsorships:

Les Schwab Tire Company, is proud to support high school educational athletics in Northern California, as the title sponsor of the CIF North Coast Section. Pride in Performance: "Let's keep it going!"

The Farmers Insurance Group of Companies is the country's third-largest writer of both private passenger automobile and homeowners insurance and proud to be the Presenting Sponsor of the California Interscholastic Federation.

As a CIF Contributing Partner, the California Correctional Peace Officers Association supports California's student-athletes in their effort to pursue victory with honor. The more than 30,000 members of the CCPOA are proud to join the CIF and its member schools in the process of developing California's citizens of tomorrow.

MaxPreps.com, the nation's largest, most comprehensive and highly visited high school sports website is the Official Action Photographer of CIF Championship events and provides an opportunity for every CIF team to post its roster, schedule and stats throughout the year.

Pacheco Brothers Gardening, Inc., a full service, fully licensed landscape contractor, serving the Bay Area and Northern California since 1979, proudly supports NCS student-athletes through their sponsorship.

U.S. Awards is the official provider of chenille patches for NCS championships.

Children's Hospital: We are the "Official Sports Medicine Consultants to the North Coast Section." We at Children's Hospital have undivided attention and unsurpassed care for our patients.

Headquartered in Englewood, CO, Sports Authority is one of the nation's largest full-line sporting goods retailers, offering a comprehensive and high quality assortment of brand name sporting apparel and equipment at competitive prices.
